Private Tenancy Agreement (Northern Ireland)

✓ (This property is managed by the Landlord)

s agreement is made on the	day of 20
1. The parties This Tenancy agreement ('the	tenancy') is between The Landlord:
Whose address is:
And	Postcode: And
The Tenant(s):	(Name(s) & Address(es) appear the end of this Agree nt)
	f more than one person, we will have that and sever hability under this they will each be liable for sums due there this element, not just out.
2. The accommodation The tenancy concerns the follo	owing a Smmodation
(The address)	Postco
3. Period of tenancy
The tenancy sta. Day: _	Month:Year: 20 and expires on
Day:Month:	Year: 20
guarantee forms and standing of the event that the standing order of the right to deem this Tenancy Ag	alendar month and shall be payable monthly in advance, by standing order. All Tenantorder mandates must be handed into Piney within 1 week of signing the lease. In mandates and guarantee forms are not returned by this date then the Landlord reserves greement null and void and the Landlord reserves the right to re-let the Premises and deposit for the said premises. Until the property is re-let the Tenants shall be say rent becoming due.
5. Deposit The Tenant(s) are required to pay tenancy commencing. Piney does not collect deposits for

The Deposit has been taken for the following purposes

- Any damage, or compensation for damage, to the premises its fixtures and fittings or for missing items for which the tenant may be liable, subject to an apportionment or allowance for fair wear and tear, the age and condition of each and any such item at the commencement of the tenancy.
- The reasonable costs incurred in compensating the landlord for, or for rectifying or remedying any major breach by the tenant of the tenant's obligations under the tenancy agreement, including those relating to the cleaning of the premises, its fixtures and fittings.
- Any unpaid accounts for utilities or water charges or environmental services or other similar services incurred at the property for which the tenant is liable.
- Any rent or other money due or payable by the tenant under the tenancy agreement of which the tenant has been made aware and which remains unpaid after the end of the tenancy.
- This list is not exhaustive and there may be other reasons that arise due to breach of contract.

Properties managed by Piney Estate Agents Ltd

If we manage the property (see top of page 1), in accordance with The Tenar (Schemes Regulations (NI) 2012, the deposit will be registered with an approved tenancy deposit school we have seried with the TDS insurance scheme which has been approved by the Northern Ireland According this scheme at www.tdsnorthernireland.com

Properties not managed by Piney Estate Agents Ltd

Deposits of non-management properties will be in the possession of the Accords and the return which are determined by Landlord and Tenant resolution and as such a cost be the recognitive of Piras Estate Agents Ltd in the event of any disputes. A Landlord however is still required, a gister your assit with approved tenancy deposit scheme.

6. Rent Book

The Landlord will provide the Tenant with rent book, free the erge, as record under The Private Tenancies (NI) Order 2006. The Tenant must make the set book available to the andlord/ag. A for updating.

7. Rates

The Landlord is responsible the pay t of the rates.

8. Bills

The Tenant(s) are solely liable for the payment. For the supply of utilities (such as electricity, gas, water and telephone), in respect of the asymmodation during the period of the tenancy. The Tenant(s) will take all reasonable steps to transfer such utilities into a cown names. The Tenant(s) must not seek, or allow, disconnection of any utility, or alter the few control of the supplier was the prior written permission of the Landlord. The Tenant(s) will be liable for the cost of reconnection of the prior written permission of the Landlord.

9. Breach

If the Landlord or Tenant(s) are in material breach of any terms or conditions of the tenancy either party is entitled to terminate the tenancy immediately or take the appropriate legal action in respect of the material breach.

10. Joint and several liability

Where the Tenant consists of more than one person, they will have joint and several liability under this Agreement (this means that they will each be liable for all sums due under this Agreement, not just liable for a proportionate part).

11. Fees

- An Administration fee of £25 will be charged should any cheques be referred to drawer (Bounce)
- An Administration fee of £25 will be charged for late payment of rent.
- 12. Please note that keys for the property will not be released until all monies owed have been paid and the required documents from each tenant have been received.

USE OF THE ACCOMMODATION

- 13. Private Residence. The Tenant as named in this agreement must occupy the accommodation only as his/her private residence.
- 14. Assignment. The Tenant is not entitled to assign the tenancy, sub-let any part of the accommodation, take in lodgers or other paying guests or otherwise part with possession of any part of the accommodation without the prior written permission of the Landlord. The Tenant must not operate any kind of business from the accommodation without the prior written permission of the Landlord.
- 15. Take reasonable care. The Tenant, and those living with or visiting the Tenant, will take reasonable care not to cause or allow damage to be caused to the accommodation, decoration, fixtures, fittings, furnishings, the common parts and property of neighbours. The tenant(s) agree not to smoke or permit any guest or visitor to smoke in the property.
- 16. Security. The Tenant and Landlord will take all reasonable steps to safeguard the accommodation against burglary. The Tenant will inform the Landlord in advance if the accommodation is to be left unoccupied for more than 14 days.
- 17. No illegal or immoral use. The accommodation must not be used for it purposes.
- 18. Pets. The Tenant must not keep any domestic pets or other animals with the prior written contact of the Landlord.
- 19. Common parts tidy. The Tenant must keep the common parts and tidy to the extent it is within his control to do so.
- 20. Refuse. The Tenant must ensure that household refuse is and in bin like sealed and seed in the wheelie bin provided, serving the property. The local council's arrangement for refuse control of complied with by putting all the household rubbish in the bin store or other properties allocated of a no such place exists, rubbish must not be placed anywhere in the sealed and shows a put out to collection only on the day designated for collection.
- 21. If the Landlord for any reason is used to give possession despremises, he or she will not be liable for any damage or loss sustained by the Tourist. This clause applies andless of whether or not any notice of the Landlord's inability to give possession as given to the Tenants

REPAIRS AND LAINT ANCE

Landlord's Responsibilitie and Rights

- 22. Commence. The andlord ensures that at the beginning of the tenancy, the property is fit to be lived in. The Land. I prove at least one key to the property from which others may be cut if required.
- 23. Fire Safety. The Landlord will be onsible for ensuring that all furniture and furnishings, and all electrical, gas, fire safety, domestic heaters, and other appliances and equipment meet the current requisite safety standards/regulations.
- 24. Repairs during tenancy. During the course of the tenancy, the Landlord will carry out repairs or other work necessary to make the accommodation fit to be lived in. The Landlord or his agent will take care of the Tenant's property when carrying out such repairs.
- 25. Specific repair obligations. The Landlord will keep in repair and in proper working order:
 - The structure and outside of the property.
 - Installations for supply of the gas, water, electric, space heating and water- heating.
 - Appliances for making use of the supply of water, gas, electricity or other sources of heating.
 - Installations for sanitation (for example sinks, baths, showers, toilets).
 - Installations for the detection of smoke, fire and carbon dioxide.
 - Door entry systems.

26. Defective fixtures and fittings. The Landlord will repair or replace any of the fixtures, fittings or furnishings, supplied by the Landlord in the accommodation, which become defective; and will do so within a reasonable period of time.

The Landlord's obligations to repair, maintain and decorate must be construed subject to the following:

- The Landlord is not under any duty to repair or maintain anything which is a Tenant responsibility or to carry out any works for which the Tenant is liable by virtue of this agreement or otherwise.
- The Landlord is not under any duty to repair or maintain anything:
 - (i) which was not constructed or provided by the Landlord, or any person from whom the Landlord derived title, or any previous Tenant (other than anything which was constructed or provided by the Tenant and in respect of which the consent of the Landlord has been given); or
 - (ii) which the Tenant is entitled to remove from the dwelling.
- In determining the standard of repair or maintenance necessary contains with the Landlord's obligations, regard is to be had to the age, character and prove the need for the relevant repair or maintenance.
- The Landlord is not under any duty to carry out any to be virtue of its obligate to repair or maintain until a reasonable period has elapsed after the Landlord been given written an ecific notice (by or on behalf of the Tenant) of the need for such pork.
- 27. Right of entry. The Landlord has the right to enter the accommodation for precision or maintenance to the accommodation or the utilities serving it, as a sonable the during a day on 24 hours' prior written notice except for emergencies.

Tenant's Responsibilities and Ents

- 28. To permit the Landlord or his Age be erect a "To Let" or "I Sale" sign on the property and to permit The Landlord or his Agent to conduct vings of the Property be en 9am to 5pm provided at least 24 hours notice has been given.
- 29. Duty to report. The Tena must report by damage to the commodation, or the common parts, or the need for repairs or maintenance, as a case a reason practicable of Tenant must immediately report to the Landlord any emergencies affecting the accumulation in a ruption to the supply of water, gas and electricity.
- 30. Reasons care and mainten etc. The Tenant is responsible for taking reasonable care of the accommodation. This includes sing out minor attine maintenance, replacement of light bulbs, smoke alarm batteries and internal decorate. Tenant in the keep the accommodation in a reasonable state of cleanliness and decoration. The Tenant shall not in the sum access use Blu Tack in the property. The Tenants will maintain any garden and hedging in satisfactory trim, and and free from rubbish (only if Landlord has provided necessary tools for doing so).
- 31. Repairs through Tenant fault. The Tenant is responsible for repair (including replacement) of damage to the accommodation, or loss of any of the fixtures, fittings and items in the inventory (if provided), caused through the fault of the Tenant, anyone in the Tenant's household or visitors of the Tenant.
- 32. Alterations. The Tenant is not entitled without the prior written permission of the Landlord to:
 - alter, improve or enlarge the accommodation;
 - add new fixtures or fittings to the accommodation;
 - install external satellite aerials or dishes;
 - erect any type of sign, flag or advertisement visible from outside the accommodation;
 - erect a shed, garage or other structure at the accommodation;
 - decorate the outside of the accommodation;
 - change any of the locks in the accommodation or add new locks.

- 33. The Tenants must not let the oil or gas run out as this can result in the heating system becoming air-locked and an engineer would need to be called to rectify the problem. Any charge associated with this would be the responsibility of the Tenants and not the Landlord.
- 34. The tenant must return all keys whether original or copy to the Landlord upon vacating the said Property or pay the cost of changing the locks.
- 35. The Tenant shall at least once a month during the tenancy clean the kitchen, toilet, wash hand basin, shower cubicle or bath with a bleach spray solution.
- 36. The tenant should always wipe down the windows and window sills every morning to remove condensation. This is especially important in the bedroom, bathroom and kitchen just opening the window is not enough.
- 37. The Tenant shall throughout the tenancy ensure that the extractor fan isolation switch is kept on at all times.
- 38. In the even of an inspection carried out by the Landlord and the property is found to be in an unclean or unhygienic condition, the Landlord will notify the Tenant that the Tenant has 10 days to rectify the matters and if, upon the inspection the Landlord finds in his opinion that the property remains unclean or unhygienic, professional cleaners will be retained to clean the property and the Tenant responsible for the cost incurred.
- 39. In the even that the Tenant fails to vacate the premises by midday on the liable for a late check out charge of £100.
- 40. Dampness. If a property is damp as a result of leaking pipes, a deged roof or wall or a string damp-proof course which is no longer effective, then the Landlord will be a saible to carry out the newsary repairs.

Dampness in a property may be caused by condensation due to poor h insulation or ventil n and in these circumstances the Landlord would be required to resolve t ch instances the l Environmental Health Department could be involved to ensure the Landlor the recor ded action to ninate dampness. The ake recommendations to property may be visited by an Environmental Health Officer w l assess th erty a the Landlord for repairs to be carried out. The telephone number s service

If the dampness in the property is as a res ion thro Cenants no arying clothes properly or improper use of heating and windows ponsible to re-decorate as a result of ıld not b me Landlo. the dampness. The Tenant must wash o effected rooms to remove all wn the inner face ternal w spores etc. This should be carried ou ing an approved ful dal solution. This will remove the immediate threat from the mould growth and s ld be carried out as a ter of the utmost importance.

Ending the tena

- 41. The Tenant cannot end the Agreement any stage after a date of signature but in the event of the any Tenant wishing to leave the premise pefore the confidence of this area of this area.
 - a) Find a suitable recement Tenant, acceptable to both the Landlord and the remaining Tenants before any such departure akes place. A charge of £180.00 payable to Piney Estate Agents Ltd shall be used on the departure are the found to Tenants must continue to pay rent
 - b) Authors went to ovide suitable replacement Tenants for which a letting fee will be charged to the departing to the event that no such suitable replacement Tenant is the found the Tenants must continue to pay.
- 42. When you vacate the property you must make sure that all Tenant belongings and furniture are removed from the property. If you have not cleared everything out of the property by midday on the last day of your tenancy the items will be assumed to be abandoned and will be disposed of by ourselves or your Landlord and the cost of the removal will be deducted from your deposit.
- 43. In the event of the breach by the Tenant of any of the terms of the covenants and conditions in this agreement the Landlord shall be entitled to serve on the Tenant a notice requiring the Tenant to remedy such breach within 24 hours of the service of such notice and in the event of the Tenant failing to remedy such breach within the said 24 hours the Landlord shall be entitled to recover possession of the premises forthwith.
- 44. You should notify the following agencies about moving out:
 - 1- Electricity Company
 - 2- Phoenix Natural Gas
 - 3- NIHE (if you are in receipt of Housing Benefit).

45. THE TENANT/TENANTS AGREE NOT TO USE THE DEPOSIT AS THE LAST MONTHS RENT.

Guarantor

- 46. If there is a guarantor, the guarantor hereby guarantees that the Tenant will comply with the Tenants obligations contained in this agreement. The Guarantor agrees to pay on demand to The Landlord any money lawfully due to Landlord by the Tenant. The guarantor is answerable for all loss, damage and injury suffered or caused to the property and furnishings by reason of negligence of the Tenants obligations and agrees to indemnify the Landlord. If the tenancy is extended beyond the initial term, the guarantor form is still valid during the tenancy extension.
- 47. Where a tenancy involves more than one tenant, a lead tenant should be nominated who will deal with the protection of the deposit, agree any deposit deductions on behalf of all tenants or submit a request to use TDS Northern Ireland's dispute resolution mechanism. The lead tenant is also responsible for testing the fire alarm system weekly and reporting any faults to Piney immediately.
- 48. The tenant agrees that on rare occasions we may need to provide a copy of the signed tenancy agreement to local council, government bodies, utility companies or to the new owner of the property should the property have been sold. We may also pass your contact details to our maintenance team so they can contact you regarding repairs.

Anti-Social Behaviour

- 49. The Tenant agrees not to cause anti-social behaviour defined as:
- (i.) acting or threatening to act in a manner causing or likely to cause a processor or announced to a person residing in, visiting or otherwise engaging in a lawful activity in residential premises or in the locality of the premises, or (ii.) using or threatening to use residential premises for illegal purpose.

Anti-social behaviour covers a broad spectrum of behaviour and range m incidents that caus incern, stress, disquiet and/or irritation through to incidents which have a prious adversarious adversarious and pact on peoples quantification affect individuals or the community at large. Anti-social believe might and e, amongst other hings:

- a) Violence or the threat of violence;
- b) hate behaviour that targets members of identified groups becaute their percentage of their percentage o
- c) noise nuisance (rowdy parties, loud musi
- d) environmental quality issues (e.g. litter cumulation of such in the large of the HMO, fly tipping in alleyways);
- e) Offensive drunkenness;
- f) Using housing accommodation for soring drugs or drug abuse ther unlawful purposes;
- g) Intimidation and harassmer

Landlords & managing agent we a nut proof powers at their posal to tackle anti-social tenants or to assist those tenants who have been subject anti-social reviour. Legal predies can include reporting incidents to the PSNI or local authority depending on the ture of the fine local authority depending on the ture of the fine local authority depending on the ture of the fine local authority depending on the ture of the fine local authority depending on the ture of the fine local authority depending on the fine local authori

LEGAL IGHTS OF ALL PRIVATE TENANTS

Illegal eviction and harassis.

It is an offence for your landlord or acting on his behalf to harass you or your household or illegally evict you. This could include interfering with your home or your possessions or cutting of services such as water or electricity with the intention of making you leave your home. Your local district council has powers to take legal action should any of these occur.

Security of tenure

You cannot be evicted from your tenancy without a possession order issued by a Court of Law, although you may be liable for legal costs incurred if an order is issued.

Help with payment of rent and rates

You are entitled to apply for help with the payment of your rent and rates through Housing Benefit, which is a Social Security benefit paid by the Housing Executive. For further information contact your local Housing Executive office.

Further advice

If you would like advice or assistance with any problems you are having in relation to your tenancy contact either Housing Rights Service www.housingadviceNI.org telephone (028) 90245640, or Advice NI www.adviceni.net who will give you details of your local advice centre, telephone (028) 90645919, or Citizens Advice Bureau (see phone book for details). You can also contact a solicitor. Help with all or part of the costs of legal advice may be available under the Legal Aid scheme.

SIGNED BY THE TENANT(S)

Lead Tenant	Tenant 2
Name:	Name:
Address &	Address &
Postcode	Postcode
Mobile Number:	Mobile Number:
Email:	Email:
Signature & Date	Signature & Date
Tenant 3	Tenant 4
Name:	Name
Address &	Adda &
Postcode	Postcode
Mobile Number:	obile Nume
Email:
Signature & Date	Signal & Date
Tenant 5	Ter. 6
Name:	Na
Address &	A less &
Postcode	ostcode
Mobile Number:	Mobile Number:
Email:	Email:
Signature & Date	Signature & Date
Tenant 7	Tenant 8
Name:	Name:
Address &	Address &
Postcode	Postcode
Mobile Number:	Mobile Number:
Email:	Email:
Signature & Date	Signature & Date

SIGNED BY THE AGENT ON BEHALF OF THE LANDLORD

Name	Mr B Campbell, 42 Stranmillis Road, Belfast, BT	9 5AA_
Signature & Date

Rent Book

It is the responsibility of the landlord not Piney Estate Agents Ltd to provide the following information within 28 days of the tenancy commencing.

	.6.
Address of Dwelling-house
Tenant Name
Landlord details	:8
Name	8
Address
Telephone Number
Agent Details (if any)	0
Name
Address
Telephone Number	_

Rent Payable (exclusive of rates)	£ per
Capital value	£
Rates Payable for dwelling-house
Rates Payable Tenant (in addition and)	£
Oth rges	All third party experience water, including gas, elect water, elephone and oil ne onsibility of tenants
Term (Dun of mancy)
Star e of the Tenan
The Exp Tenancy

Address of Dwelling-House

Date Due	Amount Due	e Paid	Pagais	Account Balance By	Whom Received